

The Canadian Children's Book Centre and CWILL BC present

In the Beaty Biodiversity Museum, University of British Columbia
Saturday Sept. 25, 2010 8:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Get excited about science. Learn about great teaching ideas, books and hands-on activities to engage children and teens in rich science experiences. Not only will you become aware of a wide array of science books and programs for youth, but you will learn some science yourself!

Keynote Speaker: Jaymie Matthews, UBC Astrophysicist

A self confessed astro-paparazzo Jaymie Matthews unveils the hidden lifestyles of stars. As the Mission Scientist leading the Canadian Space Agency's MOST Project, he is trying to write a biography of our Sun by studying its neighbours in the Milky Way. He is passionate about astronomy education, has served on the Board of the HR MacMillan Space Centre and in Discover Magazine was quoted as saying, "Exploding Star Contains Atoms From Elvis Presley's Brain - Scientists Confirm The King of Rock & Roll Lived In Another Galaxy 160,000 Years Ago!"

Featured BC Science Writers:

Fiona Bayrock, contributor to Yes Mag and author of many science books including The Ocean Explorer's Handbook and States of Matter: A Question and Answer Book; Claire Eamer, author of Lizards in the Sky and Spiked Scorpions & Walking Whales; Maggie de Vries, author of Tale of a Great White Fish: A Sturgeon Story; Avis Harley, author of African Acrostics, The Monarch's Progress and Sea Stars; Tanya Kyi author of 50 Burning Questions; Cora Lee, author of The Great Motion Mission and The Great Number Rumble; Shar Levine and Lesley Johnson, authors of over 70 hands-on science books such as The Ultimate Guide to Your Microscope and Backyard Science; and more including Deborah Hodge, Jude Isabella, and Adrienne Mason.

All proceeds from this event will help support the work of the Canadian Children's Book Centre. Special thanks to Science World, Beaty Biodiversity Museum, TD Bank Financial Group, United Library Services, Orca Book Publishers for their support. ***
