

TD Canadian Children's Literature Award

SUBMISSION & CRITERIA INFORMATION

Award Information:

- The award recognizes excellence in Canadian children's literature by the awarding of two cash prizes of $30,000 each to the most distinguished Canadian children's book of the year in French and English.
- If the winning book is a picture book, the $30,000 is divided equally between the author and the illustrator.
- $10,000 is divided among the honour book authors/illustrators to a maximum of four.
- The publisher of the winning book receives $2,500 for promotion and publicity purposes.
- The publisher must agree to have the TD Canadian Children's Literature Award seal on copies of the winning book (please see Title Submission Form). You must sign one form for each title submitted. Seals will be provided to the publisher by the Canadian Children's Book Centre.

Criteria:

In identifying the most distinguished book of the year, each judge shall consider the following criteria for excellence:

- Quality of the text and illustrations (if present).
- Interpretation of the theme or concept.
- Presentation of information including accuracy, clarity and organization.
- Appropriateness of style and presentation.
- Books should have distinguished qualities in all of the elements pertinent to it, such as interpretation of theme and concept.
- Book must be self-contained and not dependent on other media for its enjoyment.
- Book should have been written for a child audience and should achieve excellence of presentation.
- Each book is to be considered as a contribution to literature.
- The popularity of a book and didactic intent are not to be considered.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Books must be published between January 1 and December 31, 2013.
- Both the author and illustrator (if applicable) must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada (who have lived in Canada for at least two years).
- Only books published in Canada are eligible for submission. Copyright page/CIP data must reflect this.
- New editions or re-issues of previously published books are not eligible for submission.
- First Canadian editions of books previously published or simultaneously published by non-Canadian publishers are eligible for submission provided they are published between January 1 and December 31, 2013. Copyright page/CIP data must reflect this.
- All genres of books (i.e., picture books, fiction, non-fiction and poetry), written for young people up to age twelve, are eligible for consideration.

- Books must be in English.
- Translations are eligible, provided the translator is a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada (who has lived in Canada for at least two years).
- Books being submitted for consideration must be original works.
- Books based on traditional stories will be considered if the book is the result of original research and the retelling and interpretation are the writer's own.
- Short story collections by more than one author are not eligible.
- Books written as part of a series or published in serial form will be judged as separate entries and must function as a 'stand-alone' story.
- Books based on recorded songs are not eligible for submission.
- The award is only for books in the printed format, as distinct from digital (i.e., eBooks) and audio visual formats.
- Books in manuscript form are not eligible.
- All books must have an ISBN.
- Self-published books are eligible for submission provided they are published in Canada, by a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada (who has lived in Canada for at least two years), and have a valid ISBN

Note to self-published authors using printers in the US: When you are sending your submissions, if they are arriving directly from the printers in the US, please make sure that all courier charges, including duty, are billed to you. The CCBC cannot incur these costs. Packages flagged as COD will be refused.
